At the witch's house:

Children: Trick or treat?

Trick or treat?

Witch: Have some toffee apples.

Have some toffee apples.

Children: We don't want any toffee apples.

We don't want any toffee apples.

Witch: Alright. Alright.

Have some sweets.

Have some sweets.

Children: We don't want any sweets.

We don't want any sweets.

Witch: But what do you want?

But what do you want?

Children: We want some money.

We want some money.

Witch: You can't have any money.

You can't have any money.

Children: But we want some money.

We want some money.

Witch: I don't have any money.

I don't have any money.

Take my cat or take my rat.

Children: We don't want a cat,

and we don't want a rat.

Witch: So then take my ravens.

Take my ravens.

Children: We don't want any ravens.

We don't want any ravens.

Witch: Now, come on, rat and cat and ravens.

Get all the children.

Children: Help! Help!
